2. Open Access License Grant (Cc By 4.0)

The author(s) retain full copyright of the Work. The author(s) hereby grant JISASCI a non-exclusive, worldwide, irrevocable license to publish, archive, index, distribute, and promote the Work under the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License (CC BY 4.0). Others may share, copy, redistribute, adapt, and build upon the Work for any purpose, including commercial use, provided proper credit is given.

3. General Terms

- The undersigned confirms that they have full legal authority to act on behalf of all contributing authors and are authorized to enter into and execute this agreement with JISASCI.
- The undersigned confirms that the Work is entirely original, has not been previously published in any form, and is not currently under review or consideration by any other journal, conference, or publisher.
- The undersigned confirms that all required permissions for the use of third-party materials—such as figures, tables, images, datasets, or excerpts—have been properly obtained, documented, and acknowledged within the Work.
- The undersigned confirms that the Work adheres to all applicable ethical research standards, including proper handling of data, responsible reporting, and compliance with human or animal subject regulations where applicable.
- The undersigned agrees to indemnify and hold JISASCI harmless from any claims, liabilities, or damages that may arise due to violations of the warranties provided, including issues related to authorship, originality, or copyright.

- The undersigned understands that if the Work is not accepted for publication, or if it is withdrawn before acceptance, this license agreement becomes null and void, although JISASCI may retain a copy for internal record-keeping purposes.
- The undersigned acknowledges that for jointly authored Works, all authors must agree to the terms of this agreement, and the corresponding author may sign on behalf of co-authors only if explicit permission has been granted.

4. Author Responsibilities

- Ensure that the Work is original, accurate, and free from falsification, fabrication, or any form of research misconduct, and that all results and claims are presented truthfully.
- Provide complete and proper citations for all referenced material, avoid all forms of plagiarism (including self-plagiarism), and ensure that borrowed ideas, text, or data are clearly attributed.
- Disclose any potential conflicts of interest, whether financial, professional, or personal, that could influence the research, interpretation, or presentation of the Work.
- Acknowledge all funding sources, grants, institutional support, or sponsorships that contributed to the development of the Work, ensuring transparency in research support.
- Disclose any use of AI-assisted writing tools or automated content-generation systems, where applicable, and ensure that such tools were used ethically and with proper oversight.
